

WP2 Development, implementation and testing of pilot chain traceability system

Research areas:

- System specification, Develop new software functionality, Pilot implementation, Practical traceability test

Status 2009:

- Specification of functionality of an "Open Source Traceability application" (OST)
- Initial development of OST
- Specification of traceability information and food safety information to be managed by the software system (from WP1)

WP2 Development, implementation and testing of pilot chain traceability system

- Plan for 2010
- Parameter list to be further specified based on results from WP1
- Further development of functionality
- Pilot implementation at the end of the year